hanging, at the Old Capitel prison, for the murder of an unknown colored woman, at Camp Casey, in September last. Particulars in our second edition. VISIT OF CITY FATHERS TO THE WASHING-TON ASYLUM.—On last Wednesday afternoon few minutes before 12 o'clock to-day, Charles

Williams, colored recruit, was executed by the city fathers, as is their custom, paid their annual visit of inspection to the poor-house, beautifully situated on the bank of the Ana-Te Intendant of the asylum (Josias Adams, Esq., first conducted the visitors to that portion of the building termed the workhouse, where everything was found in good order.

The wards occupied by those who had hith-erto been homeless, and unable to make for themselves a living, either because of old age, sickness, wounds, or deformity, were next visited, and their comfort in every respect inquired into, and all were apparently kindly cared for by the Intendant and his good lady. Some of the inmates had religious books, showing thereby that they were endeavoring to prepare themselves to occupy a home of their own, where there will be no want or distress; and in some rooms were noticed suspended against the wall the holy cross. Some of the females were using the needle to very good advantage, either for their own benefit or for A very noticeable feature in this institution was the number of infants it contains-20 or 25the children of mothers who have been deserted by worthless husbands, or of mothers who have no marriage ring to show, and who make the poor-house a place of refuge.

The next place visited was the room in which are kept the unruly and disobedient portion of the inmates, and in which were found as Godforsaken and dare-devil a looking set as could easily be raked together.

The baking and cooking rooms were next inspected, and were found neat and clean in every particular. By questioning the baker it tained that of wheat flour is baked per day, besides a good quantity of corn bread, &c.

The grounds surrounding the building were clear of all kinds of rubbish, and these used for agricultural purposes were in keeping with

The Commissioners of the Asylum were also present during the inspection. These commissioners are required to meet every Friday atternoon at the Asylum to consult regarding the same, and to make any arrangements they deem necessary. When they think it best they release persons sent to the workhouse before their time expires, and have thus saved to the corporation within the past year about $500. They have in the past year made 25 or 30 extra visits, and for all of which they receive the small amount of $150 per year, oftentimes having to hire conveyances to take them to and from the Asylum, it being a long distance from the city railroad, besides leaving their own business.

After the inspection the visitors were invited by Mr. Adams to his comfortable table where the guests coon come to the conviction that the poor house is on the whole not a bad place to go to. During the repast Mr. and Mrs. Adams were heartily complimented on the excellent condition of the institution under their charge. We notice some need prevailing here of having water and gas introduced into the building and also new furnaces for heating it.

EPISCOPAL CONFIRMATIONS.-Right Rev. Bishop Southgate confirmed at St. Alban's Church fifteen persons. The class consisted of twenty-three, but eight were prevented by inclement weather from attendance. At Glen Ross, fourteen persons; at Rock Creek, eighteen persons; at Soldiers' Home, after the performance of full church service, two persons. On Wednesday evening, at Trinity, thirty-six; making a total thus far of To-night, Bishop Southgate administers the rite of confirmation at Grace Church, Island,

Rev. Mr. Holmead, rector.

THE DEGREE OF REBEKAH.—On Wednesday evening, Oriental Lodge, No. 19, I.O.O. F. had an interesting time, a large number of ladies and members of the order being present and taking part in conferring the Degree of Rebekah on six ladies. The company, after the close of the Lodge, proceeded to the European Hotel, where they set down to a fine supper, prepared by Emerich; and after full justice had been done the floor was cleared, and several hours were spent in the enjoyment of the

SHOULD BE SEEN TO .- F street, where the grade has been recently lowered in the construction of the passenger railway, is in a frightful condition, and the city will be in for it for damages on account of "somebody hurt," if measures are not speedily taken to reduce the grade of the other portions of the street to correspond with the excavation already made.

INFANTICIDE.-Yesterday morning an old colored woman found the body of a white female infant on 2d street east, near St. Peter's church, where it had been dropped by some heartless person, and perished from the effects of the cold. Officer Croggon took it to the Fifth ward station, when an inquest was held yesterday afternoon by Coroner Woodward.

ACCIDENT -Night before last, Private Finn, of the 12th regiment Veteran Reserve Corps, on duty at Carroll Prison, was shot through the shoulder by the accidental discharge of his peace, which he was leaning on at the time. Dr. Ford was called and dressed the wound, which is a very painful one.

A CARD - Drs. Hunter & Williams, authors of the letters on Pulmonary Diseases published in the newspapers, will visit Washington professionally on Saturday next, 26th instant, and may be consulted at 260 Penn'a avenue, over Mrs. Voss' jewelry store. 2t*
